The latest single of The New Mastersounds from Leeds, UK is released exclusively as the first release on Our Label Records in cooperation with Unique Records and their Distributor Groove Attack.

„Give Me A Minute (Part 1)“ is uptempo funk for rare groove clubs, with stops and breaks exciting for Partygoers and DJs as well. Also collectors of original-funk material will need to get their copy of „Give Me A Minute“.

„Part 2“ is the reversed variation of „Part 1“ and evolves into an independent new groove for the b-side.

The single was written, arranged and produced along with DJ Gu from Bremen, Germany, who has a residency at the Urban Jazz Groove in his hometown Bremen for over seven years now, playing funk- and souljazz-vinyl.

The New Mastersounds were founded in 1999 and have released three albums since alongside a large number of 45s. Their first longplayer was produced by deep-funk-legend Keb Darge, and ever since then the quartet of Eddie Roberts (guitare), Pete Shand (bass), Bob Birch (hammond, fender rhodes) und Simon Allen (drums) is a established name. „Give Me A Minute (Part 1 & 2)“ is their first collaboration with a German label.

The owners of Unique Records from Düsseldorf, Germany, home to the Frank popp Ensembles and the New Testament Of Funk-compilations, were immediatly excited about both parts and therefore secured a worldwide release.

The first release was set to be a funk-vinyl 45, in order to promote Gu in the funk scene as a DJ as a producer. Although it is the first and foremost aim to spread good music. Due to the excellent cooperation with Unique Records it is now possible to follow these goals.
